Article VI

LOT UTILIZATION

Section I: The resident unit, off-street parking, storage shed, heating / air conditioning units, hot water tank, main and secondary entrance steps, patio and or deck and Texas room must be contained in the rectangular space inside the full lot size that will be called the buildable area which shall include:

1. A set back from the street that is a minimum of 10 feet.
2. An easement at the rear of the unit and all other development of 5 feet; where the lot abuts the Park property line at the rear, easement must be 10 feet of non-buildable space and where the lot abuts Magic Valley Trailer Park the rear easement must be 15 feet.
3. A side yard of 5 feet on both sides of the development area, providing a non-buildable strip a minimum of 10 feet wide, with each property contributing 5 feet of non-buildable space. Where a side yard abuts a street in the park, the side yard must be a minimum of 10 feet, with the non-street abutting side yard remaining at 5 feet.
4. Where a side yard includes a heating/ventilating unit and /or a secondary exit step structure, these must not intrude into the required easement rear or side yards. Note: HVAC units are not to be placed in front of the units.
5. A driveway/walkway must be of cement, beginning at the street curb and may extend under the canopy to the back of the resident unit. In the buildable area, space must be designated for:
   a) Vehicle parking, a minimum of 20 feet in length and 10 feet in width, the first 10 feet from the street is the front street setback, with the second 10 feet being beside the resident unit. A canopy must stay within the buildable area. Where a resident owns a golf cart, the parking area must be an additional 6 feet, for total length of 26 feet.
   The driveway width may be up to the width of the canopy, such width determined by the width of the lot and the width of the unit.
   b) A heating/air conditioning unit may not be at the front of the unit. It may be under the carport/canopy, or if space permits, at the rear of the unit. The HVAC unit may not be in the required easement spaces.
   c) Main and secondary entrance steps
   d) A storage shed up to 120 square feet
   e) The patio/deck area must not restrict the vehicle parking space.
   f) If an optional “Texas room” or deck is included, it also must be built to fit within the buildable area and must not restrict the vehicle parking space.

Section II: Application of Lot Utilization Policy:

This policy is applied when:

1. A unit is moved into the park.
2. A unit is moved within the park.
3. A section of the park is re-developed.
4. A modification to lot use is requested.

The owner of an existing unit in the park must request approval for modification to lot use, by completing the RESIDENTIAL BUILDING & CONCRETE APPLICATION form & submitting the form to the Park Office.
In modification to lot use situations, the repair, replacement, or modification must not further encroach on any easement, nor exceed the buildable area allowed based on lot size.

Section III: Owners currently overbuilt on the rectangle of buildable area

1. May replace or repair storage sheds, heating/air conditioning units, hot water tanks, main and secondary steps, awnings, patios and/or decks.
2. Should such situations occur, the animal accommodation may be revoked and the owner required to remove the animal from the park.

Article XI

GENERAL COMPLIANCE

1. One (1) occupied unit will be permitted on each lot and not more than two (2) people shall occupy each unit. An additional person may occupy the unit as a guest for 14 days cumulative, with the owner assessed a $10.00/day amenities fee for the remainder of the additional person's stay. The additional person must check into the office on arrival and the Guest Registration completed. FAILURE TO DO SO WILL RESULT IN PENALTIES.

2. Moving of units (new or used) onto empty lots in the park must go through the submission of the Application to Bring a Mobile Unit Into The Park Form (FCD-010) and follow the outlined process. Both require prior approval of the Board.
   Used units must be inspected by the Park Manager for appearance and condition before approval can be considered by the Board.

If approved, the applicant must complete an APPLICATION FOR LOT LEASE form, review the Mantex BYLAWS, the Pine to Palm Rules & Regulations, and must be vetted by the Mantex President or his designate at time of signing of the LEASE AGREEMENT.

3. Residents must comply with all building regulations as per the LOT UTILIZATION policy and with all building regulations of the City of Weslaco. NOTE: City of Weslaco permits are required for construction of attached decks, sheds greater than 120 sq. ft. & construction of additional living space such as a Texas Room.
   The owner of an existing unit must request approval for modifications to their unit by completing the RESIDENTIAL BUILDING AND CONCRETE APPLICATION form & submitting the form to the Park Manager for review. If approved, the resident owner is responsible for obtaining a BUILDING PERMIT from the City of Weslaco (as applicable) & bringing a copy of the permit to the Park Office for final review and approval by the Park Manager. No construction can begin prior to the resident receiving written approval by the Park Manager.
4. All permanent units in the park must be tied down and completely skirted. The park/corporation does not accept responsibility for damage to skirting. The area between the original roof and second roof of a resident unit (if applicable) must be screened.
5. Residents are to regularly inspect and maintain the exterior condition of their unit. The unit must be in good structural condition to ensure public safety. This includes roof, fascia, soffits, exterior siding, doors, windows, carport, downspouts, gutters, awning, deck, shed, etc. Dirt, grime, and mold must be power washed and removed regularly. In the event a non-compliant resident fails to keep their unit in good repair and clean, the park may have appropriate repairs/cleaning completed and THE RESIDENT OWNER WILL BE BILLED FOR THE WORK DONE.
6. All lots must be cleared of weeds, tall grass and untrimmed shrubbery by January 1st of each year and maintained to the satisfaction of the Park Manager. Failure to do so will result in the lot being cleaned by park employees with COSTS CHARGED TO THE OWNER AT THE COST OF $25.00 plus $25.00 per man hour.
7. No business/contractor/resident may create pollution including noise, odors, or the like, that is offensive to other residents within the park.
8. Contractors are only allowed to work in the park during daylight hours from Monday through Friday.
9. For the safety of our residents, contractors cannot park overnight on our streets.
10. The maintenance department will pick up and remove any discarded materials for residents choosing to do their own renovations.
11. If a resident chooses to hire a contractor to do renovations, the contractor is responsible to remove all discarded materials. Residents are reminded to ensure that the contract/agreement with the contractor includes removal of all materials.
12. Residents have the right to bring a complaint, in writing, to the Park Manager's attention concerning any business/contractor operating within the park.
13. Door to door soliciting is prohibited. If you are approached in the park by a solicitor, please do not conduct business with them. Take note of their vehicle and licence plate, call the Park Office and the offenders will be escorted from the park.
14. Residents are reminded to use water sparingly, especially when water conservation measures are in place during extreme drought conditions, as directed by the City of Weslaco. In the event of excessive water use by a resident, the Park Office MAY CHARGE A RESIDENT FOR EXCESS WATER USE. THE CHARGE & FREQUENCY OF SUCH ASSESSMENT WILL BE AT THE DISCRETION OF THE MANTEX BOARD.
15. A RESIDENTIAL BUILDING AND CONCRETE APPLICATION form must be completed and submitted to the Park Manager for approval, prior to commencing work on your unit or lot. This includes all exterior renovations, addition of concrete, addition of rocks, and planting of trees and shrubs.
16. Only river rock is permitted in landscaping. River rock must be 1½ inches in diameter or larger.

Article XII

VARIANCE

1. A resident unit owner holding a valid lease agreement in the park may seek dispensation from a rule or regulation that creates a unique and unusual hardship.

2. All requests for a variance must be in writing and must be submitted to the Park Office by the resident owner for consideration by the Mantex Board.
3. Unique and unusual hardship must be more than an inconvenience.
4. The requested variance cannot impact on the overall public safety of the park community.
5. The requested variance cannot block access to any utility requiring potential service by park staff or private utility companies providing service to the park.
6. The cost to comply with a regulation is not considered a unique or unusual hardship.
7. The Park Manager has the authority to grant a variance request where wheelchair access is required.
8. The Park Manager has the authority to grant a variance request supported by a medical doctor's letter defining the reason for a variance requested.

Article XIII

PENALTIES

2. The resident will have 2 business days to rectify the situation.
3. Failure to rectify the situation within 2 business days will result in a second and final written warning from the Park Manager. Expected corrective action must be completed within 3 business days.
4. THE MANTEX BOARD HAS THE AUTHORITY TO IMPOSE PENALTIES, FEES, &/OR CONDITIONS IF VIOLATIONS PERSIST UP TO AND INCLUDING EVICTION NOTICE OR TERMINATION OF LEASE.

Article XIV

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

1. The Park Manager, as the agent of the Mantex Board, has the authority to act on behalf of the Mantex Board on all issues within the Rules and Regulations.
2. In doing so, he/she is expected to act in the best interests of the resident, but also in the best interests of the Corporation.
3. Residents who do not agree with a decision rendered by the Park Manager may submit a written appeal within 30 days to the Mantex Board, stating the reason(s) for the appeal.
4. A copy of the appeal will be provided to the Park Manager and he/she will provide written reasons for the decision made.
5. The Dispute Resolution Committee, consisting of 3 Mantex Board members, will investigate unresolved requests, denied applications being appealed, and any unresolved complaints involving Pine to Palm residents.
6. The investigation may include:
    - Review all relevant information including any Application, Service Request, or Complaint, and when received
    - Review of responses to Application, Request or Complaint and date response given and by whom
    - Review of relevant BYLAWS, Rules and Regulations, and Texas State Laws as appropriate
    - Speaking to the person(s) involved
    - Visiting site as appropriate
7. The Committee will make a recommendation to the Board and provide rationale for the recommendation.
8. The Mantex Board will review the recommendation and make a decision regarding the situation/appeal.
9. The Board decision will be deemed final and will be communicated to the resident(s) involved with a visit or phone call.
10. A letter will be sent to the resident(s) involved and a copy placed on file.

Article XV

DELEGATION

In every area of delegated authority rendered to the Park Manager in these RULES & REGULATIONS, it is understood that the President of the Mantex Board or any other Director designated by the President of the Mantex Board may act on the Park Manager's behalf where he/she is unable to fulfill his/her responsibility for any reason.

Those acting in the capacity of the Park Manager will not serve in a dispute resolution function.

RULES

1. Residents, renters, guests, and visitors shall not engage in any abusive or harassing behaviour, either verbal or physical, or any form of intimidation or aggression directed towards other residents, renters, guests, visitors, park staff, board members, or vendors. ANY SUCH BEHAVIOUR MAY RESULT IN DISCIPLINARY ACTION, PENALTIES, OR EVICTION AS DEEMED REASONABLE BY THE MANTEX BOARD.
